ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Hailing from the vibrant city of Buenos Aires, Gulp emerges as a multifaceted artist with a profound connection to sound. Known not only as a DJ and producer but also as a discerning curator, Gulp steers the creative vessels of the labels The Pressure Company and SUR.

For more than a decade, he traversed the labyrinthine corridors of the music circuit, immersing himself in the art of sourcing, mastering, and blending diverse musical genres. His mesmerizing performances at renowned residencies, coupled with critically acclaimed podcasts and features in esteemed publications such as Resident Advisor and XLR8R, catapulted him to prominence as a versatile musical curator and an artist of undeniable talent.

A fervent music collector, Gulp's sonic narrative is punctuated by surrealistic musical fragments that meld into a harmonious new aesthetic tapestry. His expansive yet refined musical palate has enthralled audiences worldwide with electrifying, ever-evolving, and consistently challenging compositions, best exemplified by his cross-genre ensemble, People People.

Over the ensuing years, Gulp's musical odyssey unveiled a plethora of creations and collaborations, each a testament to his diverse inspirations. These musical treasures are as integral to his artistic persona as his unshakable belief in the indivisible nature of music, transcending the boundaries of genres with eclectic eccentricity.

A visionary bridge between Europe and South America, Gulp co-founded SUR, a label that celebrated its eighth anniversary in 2023. SUR serves as a vibrant platform for cross-continental exchange and the discovery of emerging talents.

In 2021, as part of his relentless pursuit of musical innovation, he co-founded The Pressure Company, a platform and record label that has gained momentum with a succession of releases exploring electronic music's myriad facets, mirroring his boundless musical interests.

Currently, Gulp divides his time between the pulsating energy of Buenos Aires and the creative epicenter of Berlin. He continues his sonic journey on the different shapes of recorded electronics. Most recently, his latest album with People People, "Out of Our Hands," was released, marking a new chapter in his ongoing musical evolution. Gulp's sonic expedition knows no limits, and his artistry continues to captivate and inspire audiences around the globe.
