ABOUT US

TiZi is the fruit of a collaboration between Monile (an International DJ), Victor and Dylan (both Artist Bookers), who wanted to build a community around our common love of music. Our mission is to create unforgettable experiences by bringing like-minded people together and fostering a sense of community.

We aim to organize a variety of events, ranging from intimate gatherings in unique secret locations such as sky-view bars, boxing clubs, or desert oases, to larger venues that reach a broader audience. We believe music is an infinite ocean of flavors, so we showcase our musical universe through diverse performances.

Our goals include inspiring connections by building a platform where music lovers can connect, elevating talent by providing exposure to both emerging and established artists, and creating memorable journeys by curating events that take our audience on a seamless and engaging musical journey.

We don't confine ourselves to a specific genre; instead, we focus on delivering the best quality lineups that resonate with the city where we launch our events. Our curation features inspiring artists who continuously expand the vast spectrum of electronic music.

Ultimately, our goal is to provide carefully curated lineups and experiences that foster a close-knit community, leaving our audience with lasting memories.

OUR VISION

Allowing for a broader range of voices and talents to be heard, leading to a more diverse and exciting musical landscape. Different cultures, genres, and styles can blend together, resulting in fresh and unique sounds. This diversity also encourages collaboration and cross-pollination of ideas, sparking innovation and pushing boundaries.

Become a more vibrant, inclusive, and forward-thinking community that celebrates the richness of human expression.

Diversity and inclusivity in our events are crucial for creating a vibrant and innovative community. Embracing diversity means acknowledging and celebrating the unique perspectives, backgrounds, and experiences of individuals from all walks of life. Inclusivity goes a step further, ensuring that everyone feels welcome and valued, regardless of their gender, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, or disability.

MONILE

One of the minds behind TiZi, the amazigh artist from Morocco was drawn to electronic music at an early age through her brother, a house, 90's dance and techno record collector.

Her roots originate from a combination of classic music she used to express playing piano, 90's hip hop, Soul with a touch of funk and disco. On her quest for growth, she is always exploring different genres.

Her music reflects a rhythmic compassion for deep grooves and enchanting bass lines all-encompassing a wide range of electronic music styles from old school acid and ghetto house, minimal to Detroit techno and electro.

After some years spreading her wings in Barcelona, it was about time she shares her music vision with the world through this event series.

Her love for music is an endless journey to share with the world.
